If a man does not keep pace with his companions,
perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

SCHOOL LIFE

Right--Our energetic senior class is shown on Johnson International Airlines after boarding at 6:20 a.m. They arrived back at Baer Field about 9:00 p.m.

Most of the ride was spent in Chinese seat drills, in squeezing people in the johns, and guessing where Elvis Presley sat. Mr. Presley rode the plane the previous day.

SENIORS TRIP OUT IN D.C.

The Class of 1975 is shown at left with Congressmen J. Edward Roush and Floyd Fithian on the steps of the Capitol Building on April 30.

Some of the sights the seniors saw were the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the White House, the Senate and House chambers, the Supreme Court Building, National Archives, Arlington Cemetery, the Iwo Jima Memorial, the RFK and JFK graves, Curtis-Lee mansion, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Lincoln Memorial, Jefferson Monument, and the Smithsonian Institute.

Some lucky members got to see a horse-drawn funeral procession in Arlington Cemetery, with the traditional riderless horse with the soldier's boots on backwards.

APRIL 26, 1975 — JR.-SR. PROM

"We May Never Pass This Way (Again)"
James Seals--Dash Crofts

"Life, so they say, is but a game
and they let it slip away.
Love, like the autumn sun, should be dying,
but it's only just begun.
Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.
We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again."

Faculty members and their dates enjoy the dinner of clam chowder, salad, fried chicken, green beans, baked potatoes, rolls, apple strudel, and drinks.

The 1975 Prom, dedicated to the seniors, was held on the fourteenth floor of the Sheraton Hotel in Fort Wayne.

It began at 7:00 and ended at midnight. After the Prom, "Funny Car Summer", was shown at the Kent Theater. Many couples went out for breakfast and bowling in Warsaw, and many went to the Dunes.

Each year the WRSW Radio Station and the Times Union of Warsaw, IN., give Scholastic Achievement Awards to students in area high schools. The teachers of each department choose a student of any grade to receive this award. Receiving awards are Amy McVay, English; Gail Germann, Social Studies; John McCammon, Science; Bruce Bryant, Mathematics; and Leah Hartman, Foreign Language (German).

Left to Right, First Row: Bruce Bryant and John McCammon. Second Row: Leah Hartman, Amy McVay, and Gail Germann.

Five Whitko High School boys and two alternates have been chosen to attend Hoosier Boys' State. The American Legion sponsors a week of education and fun, learning about the U.S. government and practical politics.

Brad Nestel is sponsored by the American Legion Post of Columbia City; Tom Crowder, Mayer State Bank; Mark Gruwell, South Whitley VFW; and Dave Caudill, Pierceton American Legion. The two alternates are Sam Moffitt and Joe Chalk.

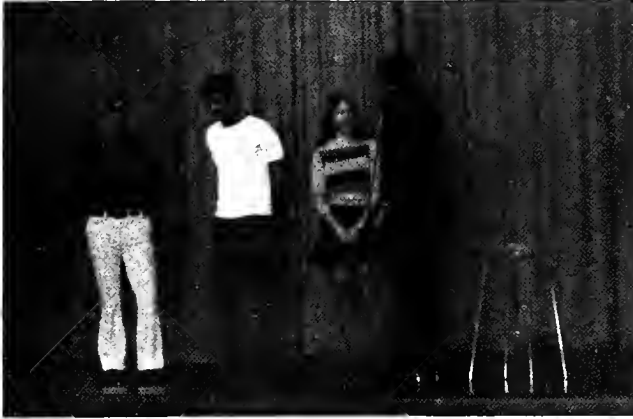

These boys are chosen by the faculty on the basis of leadership, scholastic achievement, especially in U.S. History, and high moral character.

Unit 258 of the American Legion Auxiliary of Pierceton has chosen Angie Bryant as a delegate to Hoosier Girls' State; Kathy Pence is the alternate.

Charlotte crowned Junior Miss

JUNIOR MISS

WHS had its first Junior Miss Pageant on Dec. 6, 1974. The pageant was sponsored by the South Whitley Jaycees, and its objective is to find the ideal high school girl. Contestants were judged in five categories that count varying percentages. These categories are; Scholastic Achievement, 15%; Poise and Appearance, 15%; Youth Fitness, 15%; Creative and Performing Arts, 20%; and a judges interview, 35%.

The girls who competed in the contest and their sponsors are Jan Adams, Science Club; Cheryl Christoffel, Sunshine Society; Gail Germann, Spectrum; Marlene Mishler, Speech Team; Charlotte Nicodemus, Thespians; Sonya Reiff, Art Club; and Patti Wolfe, Future Teachers of America.

The five judges decided to give a second runner-up award because the scores were so close. Patti Wolfe was chosen for second runner-up, and she also won the Creative and Performing Arts Category with an anonymous poem entitled "No More Oatmeal Kisses". Gail Germann won the Scholastic Achievement trophy. Marlene Mishler was voted by the eight other girls the Spirit of Junior Miss. Marlene won both the Poise and Appearance and first runner-up trophies. Charlotte Nicodemus was crowned Junior Miss; she also won the Youth Fitness category. Charlotte traveled to Frankfort, Indiana to compete in the state Junior Miss Pageant.

FACULTY & ADMINISTRATION

"If man cannot keep pace with his companions" . . . Even the teachers find the need to break away from the pace. As we enter the school we find Mrs. King, Miss Carlton and Mr. Holmes relaxing in the courtyard.

The first stopping point is the office where we find Miss Boggs trying to find out where the seniors should be 4th period instead of wandering the halls, Joie Dierks at the switchboard and Mrs. Ray, alias Mom Ray at her desk.

Ah, Mr. Reed, in his favorite place; throughout the day one can hear his voice ringing over the intercom: "This is now open season; anyone caught skipping shall serve detention. "

It must be an unbelievable excuse some student has given for being absent, to make Mr. Egner and Mr. Sands laugh.

Mrs. Germann and Mrs. Kessie keep themselves busy in the library looking for lost material.

It is amazing how composed Mr. McManama looks after having a class of sophomores.

Mrs. Lenwell gets away from it all by reading in the library. Do you enjoy reading Hermann Hesse?

Around the table clockwise starting at the top with Mr. Egner, Mr. McManama, Mr. McVay, Mr. Helm, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Wood, Mrs. Boley, Mrs. Kaye-Smith, Mr. Dilling, Miss Pell and Mrs. Carroll.

Special Education teacher Mrs. Heuer along with Arlene Whitaker and Carol Hall who helped out with the class in their free time.

Mr. Dilling and Mr. Patrick pose for our photographer on the new football field.

We caught Mr. Blaettner and Mr. Kidd taking a break in the boiler room.

Above: Counter-clockwise starting with Mr. Sands, Mr. Carroll, Mrs. Hess, Miss Carlton, Mr. Forsberg, Mrs. Kessie and Mr. Roberts.

Mr. Hunt and Mrs. Dunn took time out of their busy schedules to pose for our cameraperson.

Mr. Faulkner, tennis coach, Chemistry and Physics teacher. He is leaving WHS for a year to get his Masters.

The three handsome devils of upper A, Mr. Baird, Mr. Carroll and Mr. Ruple. Does it really take three teachers to work one projector?

These teachers were found in the lounge during first noon: clockwise, starting with Mr. Gordon, Mr. Wood, Mr. Marsh, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Wendel, Mrs. Boyer, Mrs. Heuer, Mrs. King, Mrs. Lenwell, Mr. Kennedy and student teacher, Mr. Park.

Mr. Jeffers displaying a prized piece of art work.

Mr. Irwin caught off guard in the lecture room with his 2nd period Government class. Should the electoral college be abolished?

Mrs. Wendell showing Miss Thompson the Home Ec. department. Miss T, aren't you in the wrong end of the building?

Whitko's FFA advisor Mr. Gordon, who came back after living in Germany, Mr. McVay, and Mr. Roberts who is leaving us this year.

Mrs. Hively, Clothing instructor, got caught off guard by Amy McVay's shutter.

There must be quite a discussion going on at this table. Seated Clockwise are Mr. Glaza, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Carroll, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Patrick, Mr. Jeffers, and Mr. Hathaway.

These four teachers can be located in the shop department, Left to Right: Mr. Smith, Mr. Hathaway, Mr. Glaza and Mr. Wood. Mr. Hathaway, do you really believe you are the best looking of the shop teachers?

These five ladies can be found slaving over the hot stoves preparing the WHS lunches. Left to Right: Mrs. Earnhart, Mrs. Striggle, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Warner, and Mrs. Bowers.

Good Luck Freshmen

The Freshman sponsors are Mr. Hunt and Mrs. Boyer. This class began the year with float building for the first WHS Homecoming celebration. A freak accident occurred and Paula Bayman was killed by crushing with a farm tractor overturning in a farm pond.

May we wish the best of luck to this seemingly energetic class, now, and in the future, whatever they do or wherever they go.

Remember, if you want to do anything badly enough, all that you must do is reach out for it, and it will in time be yours.

SOPHOMORES ADD PERSONALITY

The Sophomore Class contributed to WHS, its first Miss Congeniality in its first Homecoming festival.

For this event they also built a float. Sponsors for the class are Mrs. Wendell and Mr. Forsberg.

Laura Coble was later chosen to run for the SSS Queen; she was escorted by Jim Reed. Laura won second place.

We wish this class the best of luck.

They seem to be an energetic group of students. May they always bring a little life to WHS.

They will face many challenges in the future, and may they have the courage to face anything that comes their way.

FOR FUTURE IN FARMING

WHS FFA chapter had a successful and active year during 74-75. They started out the school year with the WHS Invitational Livestock Judging contest. There were over 200 entries from 25 different schools and clubs. A tractor pull, with 96 entries, was held the next week-end at the W and W Gravel Pit.

One of the major events for the chapter was the participation in the National Livestock Judging Contest in October in Kansas City. A team of Marvin Michaels, Bruce Bryant, Jean Yingst, and Larry Badskey placed tenth in the nation.

In December through February, the FFA held their garden seed sales in which they set a new record of over $2600 sold.

January through June was spent in preparation for the county, district, and state competition in about 35 contests. Twenty members in seven different contests represented WHS in the State contest in June.

ATHLETICS

SENIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL UND

The first Senior Varsity squad of Whitko history began its play under the direction of new Head Coach Hathaway and new assistant Mr. Baird. While the record only showed three out of fourteen wins, it did not mean the boys were out of shape. Because of their physical condition and stamina, they only had two players with critical injuries, Bruce Bryant and Chris Clupper. Coach Hathaway felt there was plenty of potential in the '75 squad, but that the main problem was their lack of football knowledge. The sacrifice of farming time and the bumps and bruises of actual play proved the boys were loyal to the game of football.

Practice! Practice! Practice! The boys' summer schedule included an afternoon and an evening practice each day.

Assistant Coach Mr. Holmes watches with a critical eye as the boys begin a play in practice. Mr. Dilling also assisted Mr. Hathaway and Mr. Baird.

In the middle of a ball game it may sometimes seem a lonely job to be head coach. Coach Hathaway looks to the confusion at the far end of the field.

1974-75 Cross-Country Team

Mr. McManama coached 10 hardworking runners for his '74-'75 X-Country team to begin his 3rd year as Whitko's X-Country coach.

Senior Jeff Walters was captain of the team, and Mark Chalk, soph., was awarded the "low point man" trophy for the best individual record.

MORE BASKETBALL?

1974-75 Intramural Teams

If you bragged that the Bucks, the Knicks, and the Pacers played basketball in your high gym, you'd probably hear a few snickers. If you added that the Oldtimers, the Teammates, the Mothers, the Losers, and the Anythings also played ball there, you could most possibly lose the confidence of your once understanding friends. All you'd have to do then would be to explain that the school intramural teams, directed by Coach

Hathaway, actually played basketball once a week in the gym. Under the names of their choice, 64 boys competed for tournament honors. The Teammates were the tourney winners with the Mothers as the team who compiled the best record.

The faculty team, known of course as the Oldtimers, played each student team during the season and faced the All-Star team for a special game.

"SWINGIN' GUYS AND GALS"

1975 Girls' Tennis Team

Girls at Whitko got their first chance to play competitive tennis this year and did so with a 2-6 record. Coach Hess, assisted by Miss Carlton, hopes that with the experience gained this year, and with people becoming more aware of the game, that next year's team will be a better squad.

Captain this year was Senior Gail Germann, also chosen the year's most valuable player.

1975 sectional players were Singles: Gail Germann, 4th place winner at the Harding Sectionals, and Krista Richards. Doubles: Jenni Whitehead and Mille Mishler; and Cindy Johnson and Janet Moffitt. Alternate was Tammy Gable.

Krista Richards, freshman, and Gail Germann warm-up with some volleys before a match.

1975 Golf Team

The Golf team stroked their season to end with a 7-13 record. In the Central Noble Invitational the group placed 8th out of 15 teams.

Jeff Carr, senior, gets in some putting practice on the upper deck. Jeff had the fewest number of putts and the lowest average for the season.

"This is the year of the Wildcats 1975"- and so the year began with the cheerleaders practicing long hours to put to use all their cheers, stunts, and yells. Under the new sponsorship of Mrs. Hess, Varsity and B-Team attended Vincennes U. and Valparaiso U., respectively. Part of the Varsity's summer schedule included competing at the Elkhart Co. Cheerleading Contest. Besides the cheerleaders' outlined duty of cheering at games, planning pep sessions, decorating halls, the girls got together a mini-cheerleading workshop for the young girls in the area. Also the cheerleaders initiated the idea of a Wildcat mascot. Tryouts were held and Brenda Conley became the first 'Whitko Wildcat'.

SPIRIT

Senior Spirit Team Members

"... we elected officers last year ... we sold football concessions and raffled cakes ... we made posters, posters, posters, ... and we cheered, boy, did we cheer!" If you ask a Spirit team member what the members did, you might get an answer like this, but more importantly you would be able to tell the dedication that this year's group had.

From Left, Brenda Conley, Mascot, Spirit Team, and Mrs. Hess, sponsor.

"Wildcats are No. 1" and so goes the enthusiastic voices of Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen.

Jane Arnold and Becki Menzie demonstrate some of the extra duties of Spirit Team.

GIRLS BASKETBALL BUILDS INDIVIDUAL

Whitko High School Girls Basketball Team, and Coach Mrs. Carroll

A team sport allows competition, travel to other schools, and the chance to gain confidence with one's own individual skill. The Whitko girls' basketball team was just such a team sport. Next year the girls of Indiana have a chance to compete in a Girls State Basketball tourney.

"If only I were short enough to go under her legs and make the basket at the same time," thinks Millie as she hustles in for a shot.

New Committee Rules on Girls Athletics

This year a committee was formed to rule on the increasingly popular girls sports. The Girls New Rules Committee decided on the number of points required to receive a letter jacket in the various sports. Clockwise from Bottom Left, Charlotte Nicodemus, Gail Germann, Patty Sellers, Mr. Sands, Deb Dierks, Krista Richards, Diane Keirn, Millie Mishler, and Mr. Reed.

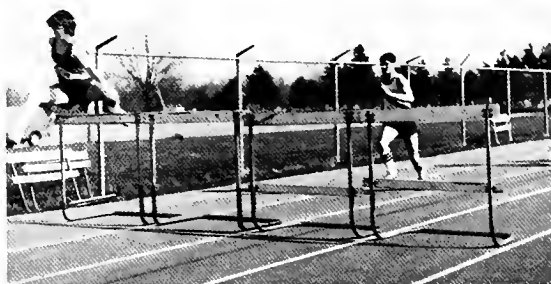

BOYS' TRACK SETS SOME RECORD

Coach Mc-Manama's team affirmed their strength this year by taking 5 men to the Sectional. Two of these runners, Ken Carlin and Mark Chalk, went to regional.

The captain this year was Senior Ken Carlin, who was also awarded the high point trophy. Ken had a record of only 3 defeats in 22 races.

Sophomore Dennis Macklin clears the last hurdle to take 1st honors in the high hurdles. Dennis took 6th in low hurdles at the Sectional.

Right: Ken Carlin huffs and puffs to the finish line in the 100 yd. dash. Ken set school records at 10.0 in the 100, and 22.3 in the 220.

Mark Chalk, sophomore, ran at a steady pace to win many a mile run, and he set a school record at Regional-4:37.

Gary Shepherd, another sectional competitor, shows at least graceful if not perfect form.

3!

He threw it! He threw it! And as soon as he gets his back into shape again maybe he'll throw the shot put too!

1 . . .
(In case you're wondering, Senior Paul Slusher is just about ready to throw the shot put.)

2 . . .
(Paul continues his dramatic form as the qualified on-lookers stand modestly by.)

DS; GIRLS TRACK BUILDS TEAM

"I'm very pleased with their performance since the majority of the team was made up of freshmen and sophomores, who were competing against juniors and seniors." That statement came from Coach Carroll who was commenting on her second season of Girl's Track.

Five girls traveled to sectional and one went on to regional—Kim Arnold ran the mile in the regional meet. Jody Conley, Deb Dierks, Rachel Engleberth, and Marsha Collier were sectional competitors.

Jody Conley was this year's high point woman (48 1/2) with Marsha Collier running a close second (44 1/2).

No group is without it's jesters. This thoughtful crowd waits for the final scores.

Do you really need a caption? Senior Sue Mort rejoices with a top placing.

ON YOUR MARK . . .

Freshmen Mary Flinn, (Standing), and Holly Stark tensely await the start of the relay.

Mrs. Carroll and her student teacher, Miss Pell, left, drilled the girl's team to a 3-7 season record.

GONE!

Junior Deb Dierks leaves the field behind as she comes to the finish line.

GET SET . . .

D.D. Delorme, freshman, begins the all-important hand-off to Sophomore Rachel Engleberth.

BASEBALL TEAM BATS EVEN SEASON

Principal Reed strikes the authoritative pose of a No. 1 Wildcat fan.

1975 Varsity Baseball Team

B.M.O.M. stands for Big Men On Mound. Undoubtedly the topic is something like, "Did you see the blonde with . . ."

The Varsity Baseball team, coached by Mr. Irwin and Mr. Dilling, had a season record of 9 wins and 10 losses.

George Wright was the top batter with an impressive .433 average.

Mike Calhoun isn't really going to pitch the ball, he's merely entertaining the outfield with his impression of a chicken!

Right: George Wright attempts to catch the foul ball but can't quite make it. George was a top catcher for the team.

TIME OUT!

. . . and now a look at some scenes from the past years' sports program . . .

At the 1975 athletic banquet, the top two awards went to three men. Bruce Bryant received the Mick Bishop scholastic and athletic honor. Terry Day and Ken Carlin both were awarded the Ed Pequignot award.

All In The Family- This could easily be a photo right out of the old family album. All the coaches and their assistants cheerily post for the photographer.

RAH! RAH! RAH!

From the time kids stopped to ask "What time's the pep session?" until you could hear the beat of the drum introduction to the school song, there was a kind of excitement generated through the building before a pep assembly. Whether it was just a chance to get out of class or really an interest in what the cheerleaders had planned-no one knows. But it seemed there were more grins than grimaces and there was even genuine laughter when classmates saw their friends getting the 'royal' treatment. Whatever-it's hoped the pep sessions worked for the reason they were supposed to- to let the teams know there were fans who supported them no matter what.

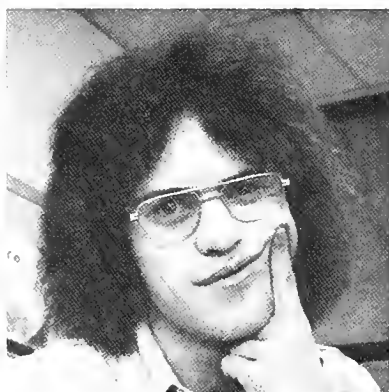

During sectional week of basketball season, there were plenty of spirit raisin' ideas going on. One that everyone looked forward to was dress down day. Here some Spirit Team members model their costumes.

"Let's let Dickie eat it-he'll eat anything!" Mr. Reed agreed to help with one pep session-so the writers dreamed up a good one. Based on breakfast commercials, the script has 'Dickie' just about ready to try his bowl of 'Spirit Bran'.

"Mom what are you doing here?!" The blindfolded boys supposedly were kissed by a cheerleader and were then asked to 'guess who'. You can imagine the surprise, and the giggles, when the boys turned around to see exactly who planted the kiss.
